Experience

Ford Motor Company, Dearborn MI

Research Engineer II, Connectivity Services for Mobility and Autonomous Applications   (9/2015 – present)

• Rapid prototyping of new technologies, sensors, and connectivity in the vehicle to enable next-gen mobility services, including Autonomous Vehicles

• Mobile and vehicle-HMI software engineering, including multi-user and connectivity technologies research

Projects

• Mobile engineer on application for Autonomous Vehicles group

• Lead on multi-user app for mobility application, in pilot phase, that will solve key business model hurdles

• Lead on in-vehicle translation app in pilot phase

• Lead on Phone as Car app for Ford Smart Mobility, exhibited live at Ford annual media conference: https://goo.gl/ytfLXK

• Finalist for Ford Connected Health App Challenge

• Lead on Android app for in-vehicle air quality management in production for China market

Miscellany

• Ford Recognition Award, Global Climate Core Recognition and Achievement Award

• Named on 13 patent applications

• Authored 3 peer-reviewed journal publications
